PROFILE SUMMARY

From the moment I produced web application from sketch with small team in bootcamp, I knew I was hooked into the world of front-end development. And it's offered an engaging challenge to continually learn, combine design with my passion of art and improve my skills in creating software.
Below you'll find projects(with links attached on icon ⚭) I've completed that showcase my skills and general background in developing software.

CODING EXPERIENCE

2021 LE WAGON ISTANBUL, BATCH #567

Watchlist

- Watch list is basic MVC models web application that allows users create their own watchlist. Built in 2 days.

BookArts

- BookArts is an AirBnb-clone developed in a team of three during a web development bootcamp at Le Wagon Istanbul in early 2021. Instead of a marketplace for real estate rental, BookArts is a marketplace for artwork.

Galata

- Galata is a mobile app built in a team of three from scratch in two weeks as our final project during a web development bootcamp at Le Wagon Istanbul in early 2021.
- Galata is a tour guide for spontaneous travelers on a budget who are interested in enhancing their sightseeing experience. Users have access to content uploaded to the platform by other users such as articles, pictures, songs, podcasts and videos.
